In the circumstances [illegible] issued to him petitioned the [illegible] in accordance with the oral agreement between [illegible] supply him with areca and plant [illegible] failed to do, that consequently the lands [illegible] alone was [illegible] has left the place and is said to be in [illegible] and to be encumbered and there is no likelihood of recovering [illegible] improvements from his property.

lands to another person, they may be left with Anantha himself.
[illegible] some sort of encouragement and that the cost of the improvement

On 6-7-30 M. Mukhomada Venkataramana Gowda offered to take up the [illegible] of lands on a progressive rate of Guni commencing from Rs.25/- and raising the amount to Rs.30/- by an annual increase of Rs.5/-, but subsequently, he [illegible] on and stated before the Collector on 27-4-31 that the lands
[illegible] on him for 50 years on an annual fixed Guni of Rs.30/-.
[illegible], he wanted that Rs.150/- should be paid to him gratis & unconditionally [illegible] fit for cultivation.

The Collector reports that the sale of the lease right for 30 years is the best [illegible] by which the lands could be disposed of having Venkataramana Gowda's offer of Rs.30/- for 8.F.67 as the initial bid for the entire lease sale.

The Sub Division Officer states that no more or bids will be forthcoming less than the lease rights are sold for a period of not less than 25 years so as to secure the lessee and suggests that the vahivat of Vasudev should be immediately discontinued and he be held responsible for any loss [illegible] sale. He also suggests the expediency of recovering a fine of Rs.300/- for allowing the lands to lie fallow, he says that action may be taken after receipt of orders, first against Vasudevrich's effects and then on Ananthaiya's property. The successful bidder in the sale may be granted takavi or land improvement loan.

Under the above circumstances, the lands S.Nos.67 and 7 may be ordered to be leased out for 30 years by sale.

The connected files of records are submitted herewith for [illegible] orders.

For Surrai Commissioner.
